

THE NEW ORLEANS MASSACRE.

The Military Investigation Commission in Session—An Indictment by the Grand Jury—Rearrest of the Members of the Convention—President Johnson on General Baird's Declaration of Martial Law—Scenes and Incidents of the Riot—The Police Murdering Loyalists while Imporing Protection.

IMPORTANT DISPATCH FROM GENERAL SHERIDAN.—THE MASSACRE CONDUCTED WEEKS AGO—REPORTS OF GENERAL SHERIDAN'S REGIMENT.

WASHINGTON, Friday, August 3.—General Sheridan telegraphs to General Grant to-day that the riot was not the result of a mob, but a preconcerted and prearranged plan of weeks for the slaughter of Union men. The despatches of the associated press are tempered to show that the riot was not a mob, and are sent, and are dictated by the disloyal State officials.

Attorney-General Heron, who was an officer in the Rebel army, virtually ranks General Sheridan as by the order of the President the military are subject to the command and disposition of the civil authorities. Heron here to-day says that General Sheridan will resign on account of the President's order in this affair, and the embarrassing position loyal officers are placed in.

THE MILITARY COMMISSION OF INVESTIGATION AT WASHINGTON.—DEPOSITIONS OF WOUNDED LOYALISTS.—ATROCITIES OF THE MASSACRE.

NEW ORLEANS, August 3.—The Military Commission appointed to investigate the massacre of Union men, took Dr. Dostie's deposition to-day. The Hon. John Henderson, and the Rev. Mr. Horton, were too weak to give evidence. The Rev. Mr. Jackson, the Hon. Oscar Foynt, the Hon. E. Daparty, and the Hon. George Howe, are among the flagrant witnesses who were not here to-day. General Heron, Hahn and the Hon. S. P. Fair, are today wounded, but will recover. I saw Lewis to-day in the hospital. The sworn witnesses before the Commission will prove that the massacre of Monday was one of the most blood-thirsty events that has ever stained the page of history.

It will be sworn to that a well-known, respected, and peaceable citizen remonstrated with the mob and police for their outrages, when the mob cried, "D—n them, kill them!" The President is with us. Heron's sworn order to-day says that General Sheridan of the Institute was called upon during the massacre, to prevent the escape of those inside. Arrangements were made by the Chief of Police, with A. B. Griswold & Co. to furnish arms for the militia. The pistols were furnished as agreed. A. B. Griswold & Co. are the firm of Hyde, Goodrich & Co., the largest makers of arms for Rebels during the Rebellion. Their property was confiscated upon that account, and subsequently returned. Nothing but the powerful arm of the military prevents a recurrence of the massacre of Monday.

[NOTE.—Mr. Goodrich is from Middletown, Conn. His brother, a bitter Secesh, in the Rev. Mr. Goodrich, was sent from New Orleans because he would not take an oath of allegiance to the United States Government.]

INDICTMENT OF THE CONVENTIONISTS BY A REBEL GRAND JURY.—EDITOR KING—THE MASSACRE PRECONCERTED.—EXPLANATION OF GENERAL BAIRD.

NEW ORLEANS, August 3.—The Grand Jury, composed of picked Rebels, have indicted the members of the Convention, and those of them who were able to be dispersed yesterday. General Baird ordered a stay of proceedings, but the President telegraphed him emphatically not to interfere. The New Orleans Tribune says:—

"W. H. C. King, alias William Buxhose, a renegade from Pittsburg, Pa., editor of the New Orleans Times, a notoriously Rebel sheet, murderer of Arthur Meuld, and captain of the Green Guards, under the Rebel name of 'General' King, was arrested by the Rebel police and murderers' Union men. There is sworn testimony that after Dr. Dostie was supposed to have been shot and stabbed to death, the rebel police and murderers' Union men, Johnson and Jefferson Davis, such exclamations as, 'Danna von, we have fought you for four years, and will fight you again' were frequently occurring during the massacre, and will be testified to before the Commission. Lieutenant-Governor Vorhees called on General Baird early on Monday morning, and told him that the Convention was to meet at 12 o'clock, when he well knew it would meet at 11 o'clock. As there were no troops on the ground at the time of the massacre, this explanation is due to General Baird.

THE CABINET IN CONSULTATION. WASHINGTON, August 3.—The President, Secretary Seward, and the Cabinet, were again yesterday. Stansberry held a long consultation at the White House to-day, upon the New Orleans riot. I am credibly informed Mr. Johnson is much worried by the course of the Convention, and has ordered the telegrams of editor King, who confidentially expressed the President's desires and views.—N. Y. Tribune.

Honors to General Barry.

MONTREAL, August 3.—The impressive public honors to Major-General Barry this morning have just closed. The review on the Champ de Mars was another of those brilliant and attractive affairs which have of late been so liberally accorded to American general officers visiting here. The troops in review consisted of the 4th Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, and the 23d Regiment of Royal Welsh Fusiliers, Colonel Bell commanding, Major-General Sir James Lindsay in chief command.

The troops executed the general movements incident to a field day, including a sham fight. Subsequently to this they passed in review order, Major-General Barry receiving a full salute, the officers and colors being in front. Thousands of people witnessed the spectacle, and the highest need of public respect was shown to the distinguished guest of the day. General Barry will pass the remainder of the day in private hospitality and a public reception. He will leave the city to-night for Quebec.

Editors' Banquet.

MONTREAL, August 3.—The Upper Canadian editors, more than one hundred strong, are to hold a meeting, to be followed by a grand banquet and an excursion to Quebec, in this city, on Tuesday, the 21st of August.

Canadian Parliament.

OTTAWA, August 3.—The discussion of the total number of constituents of the Canadian Provinces under confederation has progressed considerably. In the first twenty-four days of an amendment, one of which was that the upper house of Lower Canada should be an elective body, instead of being appointed; but they were all defeated by large majorities. The School bill is now under discussion, and tamely taking a reluctant tendency. The discussion upon it are animated and bitter.

MATTERS OVER THE RIVER.

THE CHOLERA IN CAMDEN.—THE PANIC OVER.—DURING the past, Camden has enjoyed quiet a cholera panic but we are happy to record the fact that it is about over at last. At the foot of Mickle street, in the central part of the city, there is a conveyer termed a "hook," which has for a long time been the filthiest spot in the city. By reason of insufficient drainage, the water and refuse collecting in Mickle street and adjacent streets, runs out and have consequently collected in stagnant pools along the river bank. This will soon be remedied by the construction of the culverts now in progress. Some time since a soap-boiler's institution was established right in the centre of them, to add its reeking fumes and foul smells to the general mass of filth. The authorities ordered the establishment to be closed, but it is said that it was and is still run at night, the proprietor openly defying every body to stop his business. The intelligent physicians of the city long since prophesied that if Camden was ever visited by the cholera, this would be the locality in which it would first appear.

On Wednesday of last week, accordingly, a man by the name of Allen, living in Belmont street, was suddenly seized. He had remained unharmed until the following Sunday, the neighbors, in the meantime, running him to the city and the coroner's day after McCann's death, a child of his followed him; and on Tuesday of this week two boys by the name of Tracy, who had been in McCann's house a great deal, likewise died. The disease which carried off the two last victims, was pronounced by the physicians in attendance. It was not until then that they were satisfied that the deaths in the family of McCann were the result of the same fatal scourge. Some persons situated in the neighborhood, who were attacked, but these four were the only ones who died from the effects. On Wednesday there were two more deaths, and since then there have been no more reported.

This morning the energetic efforts of the Sanitary Committee, who have caused the court and its surroundings to be thoroughly cleaned and fumigated. If another case breaks out, it is their intention to remove every family to some other locality; and if deemed necessary, to cause the buildings to be critically demolished. For several days past the authorities have been engaged in sprinkling chloride of lime in the gutters throughout the whole city in a tolerable sanitary condition, and it is thought that the dreaded scourge will spread no further at present.

HORSES AND CARRIAGE STOLEN.—A day or two since a young man of prepossessing appearance, who had been in the employ of Samuel McCann, who he hired a pair of horses and a carriage, to take a ride into the country, promising to return the same afternoon. Since that time, however, nothing has been seen or heard of either him or the property.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—The congregation worshipping in the First Presbyterian Church in Camden, finding their church too small, have finally decided to erect a new one. The materials will all be prepared that fall, and will be early in the spring work on the proposed new edifice will be commenced.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[For Additional City Intelligence see Third Page.]

GREAT ACT OF INCENDIARISM.—OLD MOYAMENING HALL BURNED.—This morning about 3 o'clock during the night of the 3d and Market streets yesterday afternoon at 10 o'clock, with a number of chickens in his possession, for which he could not show a clear title. He stated, however, that the fire was kindled by a colored man named Wade, living in Delaware county. He would not acknowledge stealing them, however, but the evidence against him was such that Alderman Allen committed him to a jail.

FUNERAL OF THE CHEROKEE CHIEF.—Hon. John Ross, Principal of the Cherokee nation, will be buried in Wilmington Cemetery, on Sunday afternoon, the 5th inst., at 4 o'clock. The funeral will start from his brother-in-law, John M. Stapler, No. 311 Washington street, in a carriage, and his relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend, without further notice.

VINELAND, NEW JERSEY.—The crops in this thriving settlement are said to be looking finely. The vineyards promise to bear a beautiful crop of grapes. The orchards are also well stocked, and large numbers of new houses and business establishments are being erected. Many passengers upon their trips to Cape May are much surprised to notice the remarkable growth of this place.

CHOLERA.—There have been eight cases of Asiatic cholera reported since our report of yesterday. Of these six cases were fatal.

LATE BOOKS.—The Petersons of the Philadelphia publishing house announce to-day the following new books, any of which can be read with pleasure. "Jenny Ambrose; or, Life in the Eastern States." This is a choice and interesting narrative, originally by Mrs. Wood. It is now in its third edition, and is considered superior to any of Mrs. Wood's novels. Also, "The Lady's and Gentleman's Science of Etiquette," being a guide to perfect manners, for both sexes. The Petersons have now ready the official edition of the Stamp Duties, of the late acts of Congress published, which took effect August 1.

ASIATIC CHOLERA VERY EASILY PREVENTED.—MAYOR'S ORDER BY EDWARD D. MCGEE, M.D., where to be the legitimate preventive of Cholera, and positive cure for Cholera Morbus, Diarrhoea, Cramps. Tested nearly forty years. Price 25 cents.

MARRIED.

DAGNEY-MCENNEY.—On Wednesday, July 25, 1866, at St. Paul's R. C. Church, at 6 A. M., by the Rev. P. F. Sheridan, Mr. EDWARD J. DAGNEY, Jr., eldest son of Edward Dagney, Sr., to Miss MARY J. MCENNEY, youngest daughter of P. McEnney, Esq., all of Philadelphia.

MILLEN-WILSON.—In Philadelphia, August 2, by the Rev. W. M. Rice, D. D., Mr. JOHN C. MILLER to Miss SALLIE E. WILSON, daughter of Dr. R. S. Wilson.

DIED.

ABRAMS.—On the 1st instant, after a long and severe illness, which she bore with Christian fortitude, ELIZABETH A. ABRAMS, wife of John M. Abrams, and Emma G. Abrams, and grand-daughter of the late Jacob Abrams and Catharine Hunt, in the 20th year of her age. The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from the residence of her grandmother, rear of No. 962 St. John street, below Bevier, at 3 o'clock, on Sunday at 9 o'clock. To proceed to Mechanics' Cemetery.

BOWER.—On the 3d instant, Mr. ROBERT T. BOWER, the relatives and friends of the family, all of Richmond Lodge, No. 230, A. Y. M., and the Order in general, are respectfully invited to attend his funeral, from his late residence, No. 1823 Frankford road, above Montgomery street, at 3 o'clock, on Monday at 3 o'clock. To proceed to Monument Cemetery.

HOMAN.—On the 2d instant, after a long and lingering illness, ABRAHAM D. HOMAN, in the 44th year of his age. The relatives and friends, all of Richmond Lodge, No. 230, A. Y. M., and the Order in general, are respectfully invited to attend his funeral, from his late residence, Emerald street, east of Hart's lane, and north of Frankford road, on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. To proceed to Franklin Cemetery Vault.

LYONS.—On the 3d instant, HARRIET P. LYONS, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth Lyons, aged 4 years, died at her late residence, No. 1823 Frankford road, above Montgomery street, at 3 o'clock, on Monday at 3 o'clock. To proceed to Monument Cemetery.

SEELER.—At Lambertown, N. J., of cholera infantum, on the 4th instant, GEORGE W., youngest son of George W. and Annie V. Seeler, aged 1 year 3 months & 3 days.

CARPET-SWEEPERS AND CLOTHES-WRANGERS should be used by every good housekeeper. The most approved is made in Philadelphia, and is sold by the "Government" by a misrepresentation of the capacity of their sills, which, as is well known, fixes the amount of the tonnage to give.

Mr. Diehl is one of the oldest and most energetic revenue officers in the city, having received his commission from Mr. Lincoln. He is determined to break up the business of the defunct distillers, or to compel them to submit to all the requirements of the law. In this effort he has the hearty co-operation of the Commissioner at Washington. But it is little likely that any of the defunct parties will appeal to the Commissioner in person, and attempt to compromise the matter by payment of all the back taxes. The Government is to be hoped that no proportion of the kind will be listened to by the Government. So many compromises of this character have been made already that to continue them will be nothing but the offering of a premium for a reckless violation of the law.

THE STOLEN PIGS.—Alexander Gardner, an American citizen of African descent, was walking along Market street yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, when he was seized by a man, who, judging from his hood-humored (sic) something good. At Fortieth and Market streets a police officer asked him what he had got in his basket, it being the custom of the defunct parties to carry off their pigs, and everything else, on. When taken to the Station House Aleck confessed the theft, and said he stole them from another colored man named L. Allen, living on Belmont street above Lancaster pike. He was committed by Alderman Allen to answer.

SETTLED AT LAST.—The grievous trouble which has existed in affairs connected with the office of the Collector for the First Internal Revenue District came to a finality this morning. At about 9 o'clock, Mr. George Harris Bloembergen stepped into the office, and in the name of the United States Government took possession by authority of a commission recently issued to him. Colonel John H. Johnson, who had been in the office, and who had been the case would warrant. Our readers will be pleased to know that this trouble is ended at last.
